sachusetts is to make a fight before plain their actions at a meeting of the U.S. Golf association for the reinstatement of Francis Oulmet, for | night at the Great Northern hotel. mer amateur and open champion. Letters are being sent to all clubs connected with the association, setting forth the claims for Oulmet. Ouimet was branded a pro because he was selling golf material.

A rather punk ruling, and one that would bar many good men if it was rigidly enforced through the country. Extending the ruling, it might hit Chick Evans, who is writing articles on golf for a local paper. But that wouldn't be fair to Chick. He should be allowed to capitalize his prowess and popularity to this extent, and the bar should also be lifted on Ouimet.

Rule makers do some peculiar things when they begin tinkering with the amateur standard.

Kickers who have played fast and This play is a whopper, but should

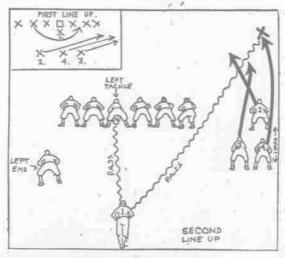

The Woodland Golf club of Mas- I teams will be given a chance to exthe Illinois State ass'n tomorrow Unless satisfactory explanations are given it is expected several suspensions will be made.

> UNCLE SAM'S FOOTBALL STAR DESCRIBES HIS BEST PLAYS

> The last of six articles in which Elmer Oliphant, famous West Point halfback, and one of the country's greatest allround athletes, describes six famous plays and tells how to make them. Oliphant is the only athlete who ever won four letters at the U. S. Military academy. starred in football, basketball, baseball and track. He also won four letters at Purdue before entering West Point.

> > By Elmer Oliphant .

loose with local soccer clubs by sign- be well practiced so there will be no ing forms and then jumping to other danger of making mistakes on the

Tackle Shift; Forward Pass,